greekedtext said: Excellent, thanks so much for this post! I read Newton and came to the conclusion, based on the social ties between St. C & NY that AH didn't lie about his age because he would've hated to get caught (Newton's suggestion that AH wouldn't have lied because AH was a very honest person is a bit of a crap claim for an historian to make, though).

The second documentary film, Zeitgeist: Addendum, attempts to locate the root causes of this pervasive social corruption, while offering a solution. This solution is not based not on politics, morality, laws, or any other establishment notions of human affairs, but rather on a modern, non-superstitious based understanding of what we are and how we align with nature, to which we are a part.
