Presentations look across the American Memory collections to investigate curricular themes. They include historical background, helping to tell the story behind the theme. Activities offer an interactive, "hands on" experience and focus on a specific topic, rather than broad themes. They require teacher direction, but invite students to participate.

Note1: these lesson ideas are for classes in countries where English is NOT the main spoken language. Classes in English-speaking countries can use/adapt some of these, but of course have a wealth of other possibilities. Note 2: These classes all presume that you are able in fact to leave the classroom. Find out if you are allowed to do so before attempting these activities.
