Any good Jokes or riddles for me tonight? :3? | Yahoo Answers

On a lonely country road, the driver jammed his car's brakes just in time without knocking down an old man who was wearing a totally dark suit and wooden cloak. The car's headlights were not on and the street lights were not working either. There were no moon or stars but the driver was very alert and very skillful. It's was fortunate he did not kill the old man.

Best answer: We already have for the past 18 years, and despite our reconstruction efforts, the country is still being ripped apart by tribal warfare and struggle for control between the Taliban and Afghan forces. It's not worth the blood of every American man and woman in uniform to stay there forever when Afghanistan is still the same as it was before 9/1 and nothing changes.

Best answer: Planes have ejection seats because when the parachute opens, you'll have plenty of time to navigate to a safe landing spot. An ejection seat from a car isn't going to give you enough time to navigate where you want to go. If it ejects straight up, you'll just land where you started at the moment of impact.
