A triage system is the essential structure by which all incoming emergency patients are prioritised using a standard rating scale. The purpose of a triage system is to ensure that the level of emergency care provided is commensurate with clinical criteria. 'Urgency' is determined according to the patient's condition on arrival at the ED.

Two different workbooks are included in the course, one for the betrayed spouse and one for the unfaithful spouse. The 420 page workbooks will be mailed inconspicuously in a plain box that does not say "Affair Recovery" anywhere on it. Each chapter covers one week of the course and contains essential lessons and practical exercises that you'll discuss with your Small Group each week.
