As AFH mentioned, there are no Unicodes for modifier keys. You have two options: you can make use of the key available in certain icon fonts, such as Marlett 1 or Wingdings, or you can use Win to symbolise the key. The latter option is the most commonly-used, especially inside of the industry, but since you say your audience is likely to be technologically illiterate, it would be more safe to ...

Reconsidering the Etymology of Democracy. The traditional etymology for democracy suggests that it derives from two Greek words: demos, meaning "the common people", and kratos, meaning "rule". While "rule of the common people" appears to describe what we today understand the word democracy refers to, that translation actually appears to mask or confuse much of the history and meaning related to ...
