Dany tries to circle them but there are ballistae facing in all directions and any time she gets close they fire, keeping her back, while the rest are taking apart her fleet at range. She harasses them to cover her forces retreat. It would have required no additional scenes, would have cost the same to make, and would have made 10 times more sense.

No, all restaurants do not offer specialty food options. However, as people become more health conscious, many restaurants adapt their menu to accommodate more requests and healthier choices, like gluten-free, dairy-free, and vegan options. No place is required to have those options; it's really a business decision on the restaurant's part.
