Are you ready to learn nursing and health care skills via the Internet? According to author Diane J. Skiba, unless you are within 5 years of retirement, you will be encountering the "Net generation" in your nursing practice. This is a group that embraces technology, and it believes that health care, like education, is in the dark ages when it comes to technological usage.

Personal Works: I have been asked a few times lately if I have published anything new recently. Well, as it turns out, I have :). Available only through the Amazon Kindle bookstore, I published a short story with them called Abraham. If that link doesn't work for some reason, you can find it easily through the Amazon search by typing in 'abraham campos'.

NOTE: The following stories seem to describe two kinds of "electric human" phenomena. One involves conventional static electricity, and the other is something more mysterious. If you *DON'T* get constant shocks when touching either people or metal objects, yet electronic devices often fail in your presence, then your problem is not strictly electrical.
