Today I was eating at the Subway by Airborne School. A Major from [unit redacted] walked by and asked where I was headed. I told him Fort Irwin and he laughed right in my face saying "Wow you must've been last in your class. No tab and headed to Irwin." The above excerpt is from an email by a young Infantry officer I had the chance to mentor over the past few months.

I've been thinking a lot about education recently because I've been thinking a lot about the future of our children. Are we really going to live in a world where the rich continue to hoard their multi-generational fortunes while the rest just struggle to get by? Will the playing field continue to be so uneven that the middle class and poor must work twice as hard to get half as much?
