Evidence of common descent of living organisms has been discovered by scientists researching in a variety of disciplines over many decades, demonstrating that all life on Earth comes from a single ancestor. This forms an important part of the evidence on which evolutionary theory rests, demonstrates that evolution does occur, and illustrates the processes that created Earth's biodiversity.

We, all of us, are rapidly running out of time. If the biosphere is not soon freed from the ongoing global climate engineering assault, there will very soon be nothing left to salvage of our once thriving planet. Photo credit: Oregon Air National Guard. If we are to have any chance of altering our current course in time to make a difference, the effort will take all of us.

Will Any Interpretation Do? One of the strangest phenomena I've seen in this debate is that many of those who demand that the "days" in Genesis be a literal 24 hour creative day just because it says "day", will go to the geneology lists in Genesis 5 and Genesis 11 and say that "years" don't mean "years". While holding dogmatically to a scientific creationist view of the first few chapters of ...

It's not just stupidity, it's arrogance. Having starting doing business for myself I've realise more and more that there are a lot more people who need to put that shit on a shelf for another time, learn a little humility and learn to place trust in others for areas they know nothing about, or know the other person/business is better at it than they are.
