Preface to the 'Home Education' Series. The educational outlook is rather misty and depressing both at home and abroad. That science should be a staple of education, that the teaching of Latin, of modern languages, of mathematics, must be reformed, that nature and handicrafts should be pressed into service for the training of the eye and hand, that boys and girls must learn to write English ...

Last Friday I packed up the kiddos and we went down to CT to visit the fam for the weekend. One of my favourite things about working from home is the flexibility it gives me to organize and plan my days and weekends in a way that works for me (namely not having to keep a super strict schedule and travelling when I want to).
